ROLE DESCRIPTION

ORIMA Research Pty Ltd is a consultancy company that conducts research for Australian and State/ Territory Government clients on a range of topics, including healthcare and wellbeing, education, environmental assets, policy, sports programs, communications and more.

ORIMA's dedicated Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Research Services Division is tasked with conducting inclusive, robust, ethical and high quality research. Throughout ORIMA's history, we have maintained a strong focus on ensuring that our research with Australia's First Nations peoples is conducted in a respectful, sensitive and collaborative way. We have formalised our commitment to working with, and creating opportunities for, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples and communities through our REFLECT Reconciliation Action Plan (RAP).

At ORIMA Research we have over 35 Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community-based interviewers across Australia conducting sensitive and robust national research with First Nations peoples. We are looking for someone who identifies as Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander to work from our Melbourne office and maintain, co-ordinate and oversee our team of community interviewers. This position will work closely with, and be guided by, our First Nations Principal Advisor, N'arweet Dr Carolyn Briggs AM.
